

very far away to me - Italy is near by - but then an ocean is such an easy thing to cross.

Miss Stour met him in September & since then Mrs Bonner & I have been exploring many fascinating places & studying ourselves in Italian lore & history, & incidentally trying to learn something of the language - I would hate to have you know what slow progress I make -

From Venice we went to Parma & Piacenza & made

My dear Mr. Pfeiffer -

I was in Venice
when your good letter reached me - What a glorious trip that you must have had - Is it it fine to do your duty so nobly & "See America first"! I don't know a thing about my own land for more than a few feet back from the Atlantic Coast. Chicago some
